

RON ADKISON

The experience of having seen someone close to you taken advantage of in a business deal continues to drive Ron Adkison.

His firm embodies a passion for protecting the futures of individuals, their families and businesses anytime the stakes are high and the outcome is critical. Adkison is well known in courtrooms throughout North and East Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Louisiana for his fearless advocacy for small and medium-sized businesses as well as individuals faced with complex litigation.

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Adkison's civil trial practice covers a wide range of areas. Adkison has tried a variety of cases to a successful conclusion. Contract actions, fraud, shareholder rights and conspiracy cases form a background of far-reaching experience.

SUCCESS FOR CLIENTS WHEN THE STAKES ARE HIGH

Adkison's years of experience representing royalty owners, producers, surface owners and operators involved in contract disputes has yielded a sharp focus on cases that involve surface damage, payment disputes to royalty interest owners and working interest owners, as well as disputes between operators.

Wellborn Adkison's experience in personal injury cases includes representation for products liability, automobile accidents, trucking accidents, workplace injuries and catastrophic injuries. The firm focuses on seeking lost wages, lost earning ability and medical bills for its deserving clients.

ADKISON NAMED TO TEXAS SUPER LAWYERS®

For nearly 30 years, Adkison has devoted his professional life to making a difference in the field of law. Board-certified in civil trial law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization, his practice is focused on civil trial law in the areas of personal injury, business litigation, oil and gas litigation and insurance law. Widely known as an advocate for small business owners, employees and individuals, Adkison has a popular reputation for taking on large corporations in the courtroom with great success for his clients.

TRADITION OF SUCCESS CONTINUES

Adkison recently won a new election for an Anderson County candidate by demonstrating that ballots in a particular precinct were counted incorrectly, as well as a favorable settlement in an oil field accident case and a large judgment in a trucking case. In another case that began 15 years ago, the firm ultimately received a favorable settlement for a number of clients involved in a major surface damage claim.

"I look forward to serving the good people of East Texas and offering the high level of commitment and compassion that our clients have come to expect," Adkison says.
